

4/22/2011 CORTEK, Inc. Receives $9.6 million Task Order under their recently awarded contract at Edgewood Chemical Biological Center, (ECBC) at Aberdeen Proving Ground (APG). CORTEK will provide Program Management, Systems Acquisition Support Services, and Scientific, Engineering, Technical Assistance (SETA) to various ECBC Program Offices and Projects.

CORTEK, Inc. announced today that it received a new contract award to provide Program Management, Systems Acquisition, and SETA Support Services to the Edgewood Chemical Biological Center at Aberdeen Proving Ground, Maryland. Tony Seals, President and Chief Executive Officer of CORTEK, stated that, "Cortek is pleased to be a part of this great team and to have won this opportunity to provide our expert services to this client. Our successful partnering and diligence in performing far above the standard requirements has proven invaluable in maintaining and acquiring successful business relationships within the Federal Government and Contractor Community."

Headquartered in Fredericksburg, Virginia, CORTEK, Inc. is a premier Service Disabled Veteran Owned Small Business, (SDVOSB) that provides innovative Scientific, Engineering and Technical Assistance (SETA) Services to the Department of Defense, Federal Government Agencies, and commercial defense contractors. Their core business area is Systems Acquisition, Program Management Support Services, and other Technical Services associated with Government Systems Acquisition. To learn more about CORTEK, Inc. please visit the company's web site at www.cortek.com.